◆ SALAS: THEN AND NOW ◆

While Salas has been serving Mexican Food in Lawton since the late 1950's, our beginning came in 1992, when Tony Salas and his wife, Julia Salas, moved across the Red River from Dallas to Lawton to grab the reins at the historic restaurant at 2nd and Lee.

After 23 years at that location, we built this beautiful building in November of 2015, having no idea the blessings and challenges that would lie ahead. Now we have a global pandemic as one more notch on our belt. Despite that dark time, it was our loving and loyal customers who made it worth coming to work every day, plus that strong base of super-hero workers who managed to keep smiling behind their masks and their uncertainty. Thank you all for letting us know that we are, indeed, Essential.

Many tacos and margaritas later, after two kids born and raised, one amicable divorce, a few health scares AND a global pandemic, Tony and Julia are still friendly partners who share a strong faith, and a passion for excellence in the food and beverage service industry. If it's your first time or your hundredth, we're delighted you're here, and humbly thank you.

Another passion we hope to share here is our passion to serve the community in other ways. That is why we have opted to have one simple mission statement:

To Feed and to Serve
